IPAC-CSO Terms of Reference

SECTION: Chapters: IPAC-CSO
 SUBJECT: CHAPTER TERMS OF REFERENCE
 ORIGINATED: August 2013
 REVISION: March 2017, April 2017, Feb 2022

NUMBER: 15.11

THE CHAPTER TERMS OF REFERENCE should reflect and relate to the IPAC Canada/PCI Canada By-laws. Chapter Terms of Reference must not conflict with the IPAC Canada/PCI Canada By-laws. Some of the items below indicate flexibility for chapter preference. Chapter Terms of Reference (ToR) should be reviewed annually and revisions approved by Chapter membership. The revised ToR is then sent to the IPAC Canada/PCI Canada Director (Chapters and Interest Groups) and Executive Director for review, followed by final review and approval by the Board of Directors.

THE IPAC CANADA/PCI CANADA BOARD OF DIRECTORS may create and dissolve chapters of the Corporation, which shall have the legal status of committees. The Board of Directors may create and amend written procedures and practices in respect of chapters

THE FOLLOWING should be considered when developing the chapter’s Terms of Reference. Be sure to review the IPAC Canada/PCI Canada by-laws and the sections of the Policy Manual that relate to Chapters (<https://ipac-canada.org/policy-manual>) The examples below can be enhanced by any specific wording approved by membership, and then the Director/Executive Director. The format shown is for discussion only.

SECTION
Title	IPAC-CSO, a Chapter of Infection Prevention and Control Canada-Prévention et contrôle des infections Canada.
	TERMS OF REFERENCE The following terms of reference of this organization support and relate to the By-laws of Infection Prevention and Control Canada-Prévention et contrôle des infections Canada.

Purpose and Objectives
2.1 Purpose	To reduce the risk of infection across the care continuum through knowledge exchange, sharing experiences, ideas and information for the prevention and control of infections, and the collaboration and networking among persons interested in infection prevention and control (IPAC).
2.2 Objectives	1. To promote and enhance IPAC expertise through individual and group activities.
	2. To assist individual members in the development of their own IPAC program.
	3. To hold multi-disciplinary educational conferences or seminars to update knowledge in IPAC.
	4. To support and assist with research/study activities and the publication of results.
	5. To identify and compile IPAC measures that have proven effective in specific areas of concern, including evidence-based practice guidelines, recommendations, position statements, etc. that maintain safe, effective and quality care.
	6. To promote communication with members of the healthcare team across the continuum of care.
	7. To assist individual members in their professional development in the field of infection prevention & control
	8. To promote community awareness and understanding of the source of infection, the mode of transmission, and the means of control.
	9. To act as an advocate for and increase awareness of IPAC practices and issues
	10. To consider diversity, equality and inclusivity of our IPAC Canada members and the greater population we serve.
3. Members	Each Voting Member shall be entitled to receive notice of, attend and to have one vote at all meetings of the members of the Chapter. In voting and counting votes, there shall be no distinction between Active Members and Honorary Members. See Membership Categories (#5) for voting restrictions.
4. Membership Dues	4.1 Chapter Members must be members of IPAC Canada/PCI Canada. Chapter dues are payable with national membership. A portion of the national membership dues will be reimbursed to the chapter designated by the member.
	4.2 IPAC-CSP members are welcome to invite guests to 1 meeting free of charge. Guests wishing to attend subsequent meetings will be provided with a membership form. Chapter dues are set by the Board of Directors of IPAC Canada/PCI Canada.
	4.3 The membership year shall be 12 months from the date membership is processed by IPAC Canada/PCI Canada.

	4.4 Membership renewal notices will be issued by IPAC Canada/PCI Canada.
	4.5 IPAC Canada/PCI Canada will issue a monthly listing of current chapter members and a listing of those who have paid their fees in the period covered by the fee reimbursement cheque. These will be sent to the Treasurer and the Membership Director of the Chapter.
	4.6 Additional reasonable assessments may be levied on Chapter members by the Chapter on approval of membership.
5. Membership Categories	5.1 Chapter members are active, voting members of the chapter and IPAC Canada/PCI Canada, with the exceptions below. They may hold office in the Chapter or the Board of Directors, IPAC Canada/PCI Canada.
	5.2 Student members have paid Student fees to IPAC Canada/PCI Canada. They are non-voting. They may participate on committees but may not hold office in the Chapter nor on the National Board of Directors
	5.3 Retired members have paid Retired fees to IPAC Canada/PCI Canada. They are non-voting. They may participate on committees but may not hold office in the Chapter or the National Board of Directors.
	5.4 The Chapter may choose to bestow Chapter Honorary or Life membership to a chapter member based on criteria established by the Chapter. They are active, voting members of the Chapter. The Chapter or the Honorary Member must continue to pay membership dues to IPAC Canada/PCI Canada. A portion of the membership dues will be reimbursed to the Chapter on behalf of the Chapter Honorary/Life Member.
	5.5 IPAC Canada/PCI Canada may bestow Honorary membership to a member based on criteria established by IPAC Canada/PCI Canada. The IPAC Canada/PCI Canada Honorary Member does not pay national dues. The Chapter portion of national membership fees will be forwarded to the Chapter designated by the Honorary Member.
	5.6 Business members of IPAC Canada/PCI Canada may be accepted as individual, voting members of the Chapter may hold positions on Chapter and national committees and may hold elected office in the Chapter. Business members may not hold elected office on the IPAC Canada/PCI Canada Board of Directors.
	5.7 Corporate Members are companies/corporations/agencies which support the objectives of IPAC Canada/PCI Canada and provide additional support to IPAC Canada. Corporate Members manufacture products (e.g., disinfectants, hand hygiene products, infection prevention equipment, etc.), or provide a service (e.g., inspections, education, guidelines, etc.). Corporate Members do not provide direct patient care but may support patient care activities. The company/corporation/agency is the member of IPAC Canada/PCI Canada. A Corporate Member principal contact is non-voting and may not hold elected office. They may serve on committees.. One official representative of the Corporate Member as named by the Corporate Member is provided with a voting chapter membership, for which chapter membership fees will be forwarded to the Chapter designated by the Corporate member.

	5.8 Other individual representatives of the Corporate Member may apply for voting Active/Professional Membership. These Active/Professional members may serve on chapter committees and hold Chapter office. They may not serve on the IPAC Canada/PCI QC Board of Directors.
	5.9 A membership in the Chapter is terminated when: a) the Member, Student Member, or Retired Member dies or resigns; b) the Member, Student Member, Retired Member or Corporate Member is expelled or their membership is otherwise terminated in accordance with the articles or by-laws; c) the term of membership of the Active Member, Student Member, Retired member or Corporate Member expires and has not been renewed for a period of three months after expiry date; or d) IPAC Canada/PCI Canada is liquidated and dissolved under the Act.

	6.2 The fiscal year of the Chapter is January 1- December 31.
	6.3 (a) Minutes of Chapter committee meetings shall be distributed to committee members (b) Minutes of Chapter Membership meetings shall be distributed to committee members and posted to the Chapter website.
	6.4 Correspondence and financial records shall be kept for a minimum of 7 years. Audited financial statements, minutes and contracts are to be kept for the life of the Chapter.
7. Executive	7.1 The Executive shall direct, manage, operate and govern the association, and all their actions shall be subject to approval by the membership.
	7.2 Details of the Executive responsibilities are outlined in IPAC CSO Chapter policies. A summary of responsibilities is in Section 17.
	7.3 The Executive shall consist of President, President-elect, Past President (when applicable), Secretary, Treasurer, and Membership Director. Additional positions may be added with the consent of Chapter membership. Positions may be combined except for the positions of President and Past President.
	7.4 If any Executive member misses three consecutive Executive meetings without a reason acceptable to the Executive, the Executive may act as follows: (a) If the Executive position is the President or President Elect, the Executive may recommend to the next meeting of members that the President or

	President Elect be removed from their Executive position. If the members vote to remove the individual, the members shall immediately elect a successor. (b) If the Executive member is not the President or the President Elect, the Executive may vote to remove him/her as an Executive. The Executive may then appoint a qualified individual to fill the remainder of the Executive position term.
	7.6 If an Executive position becomes vacant because of death or resignation, the Executive shall, within a reasonable time, make reasonable efforts to appoint a qualified individual to fill the vacant position until the next annual meeting of members.
	7.7 If an Executive member is elected to the IPAC Canada/PCI Canada Board of Directors, they must resign their Chapter Executive position immediately. The Executive may appoint an interim Executive position until the next general membership meeting.
	7.8 Any other scenarios, not listed above, must be discussed with the IPAC Canada/PCI Canada Director (Chapters and Interest Groups).
8. Term of Office	8.1 The term of office of the President-elect, President and Past President shall be 2 years. The term of office of all other positions on the Executive shall be 2 years with eligibility for re-election. Terms should be staggered to ensure consistency in governance.
	8.2 The President and President-elect may hold office for a maximum of two (2) terms unless additional terms are approved by membership.
	8.3 All terms commence on January 1st. The outgoing Executive will coordinate a smooth transition to the incumbent.
	8.4 Should vacancies occur during this term of office, the Executive shall fill such vacancy by appointment until the next election is held.
	8.5 The members entitled to vote may, by resolution passed by at least two-thirds (2/3) of the votes cast at a special meeting of members held for that purpose, remove any Executive member before the expiry of his/her term of office. The members may then immediately elect a qualified successor to fill the vacancy for the duration of the term in question.
	8.6 Responsibilities of the Executive should be outlined in Chapter policies. See IPAC Canada/PCI Canada by-law 3.10 for Executive function and responsibilities.
9. Banking Authorities and Audit	9.1 The Treasurer will open an account at a chartered Canadian bank in the name of the Chapter. Signing authorities will be two of the Treasurer, the President, and the President-elect. The Treasurer may be the sole signatory of cheques or e-transfers after an approval form has been completed by either the President or the President-elect. See one-signature cheques and e-transfer guidelines at https://ipac-canada.org/chapter-treasurers , and in the Chapter Treasurer Handbook (https://ipac-canada.org/chapter-treasurers).

	9.2 An annual audit of the Chapter financial records and processes will be undertaken by a) a third-party auditor; b) a third-party accountant; or c) two Chapter members who are not members of the Executive.
